FROM:

SUBJECT: INF IG Meeting, 26 March 1982

1. The INF IG, chaired by Richard Burt, received a debrief from Ambassador Nitze on the status of negotiations in Geneva. Also discussed was the INF work program planned for the two month interim in preparation for the next round.

2. Nitze reviewed the Soviet position on the central negotiating issues along the lines which I am sure he provided you last week.

4. Burt felt there was no need at this time to reassess the U.S. negotiating position. Nitze thought he might recommend some minor modifications to the delegation instructions after consultation with delegation members.

5. Burt reported that work on the verification annex to the draft Treaty was continuing and that the Intelligence Community was preparing study papers on the issues of aircraft and missile range estimates and SS-20 transportability. These papers are underway and should be available for the next round.
